- All bundles of grain should be tied in a neat bundle, 4 inches in diameter. Neatness of the exhibit will be a very important point in judging.
- All farm products exhibited shall be grown by the exhibitor.
- All exhibits of shelled grain will be shown in gallon glass jars.
- Care will be taken to protect the exhibits from injury, but the Delaware State Fair will not in any way hold themselves responsible for accidents, loss and damage by water, fire, theft or otherwise, whatever may be the cause or extent of the damage or loss sustained. All exhibits are entered at the owner's risk.
- Fruit will be judged on the basis of accepted commercial standard for each particular variety. Exhibitors should keep this point in mind in selecting and preparing exhibits.
- Each plate of fruit exhibited will consist of exactly five (5) specimens, except those plates containing small fruits like crab apples, seckel pears, plums, etc., which must contain enough fruit to fill the plate in which they are displayed.
- When there is no competition in a class, only second money will be awarded, except for exhibits which in the opinion of the judges, are worthy of first award.
- All fruit entered for competition in any class must be mature and ready for market. Fruit that is picked too green will be scored down because of lack of proper color and quality. Bruises will be counted as serious defects.
