- All Junior Market Exhibitors shall provide a viable cell phone number on their ShoWorks account. Should your market goat make the auction on Thursday, July 30th, you will receive a text with an approximate time that the Fair Staff will clean the Simpson and New Castle Barns. You will be responsible for your animal(s) and tack during this process. The Fair Staff will be utilizing gas powered backpacks to blow the bedding from the pens.

Entry Information & Fees:

1. Entries can only be made online via the Fair's website beginning 9:00 AM April 1, 2026 thru 11:59 PM June 1, 2026.
2. A $10.00 entry fee per class (excluding groups/pairs and showmanship/fitting classes) is required for all show entries.
3. It is the responsibility of each exhibitor to read all General Animal Exhibitor Rules on the Fair's website.
4. Only one entry per class in the Junior Show. The exhibitor(s) will also be eligible to enter in the Open Class. No exhibitor may collect more than 2 premiums in one class in the Open Division. For purposes of this rule, Exhibitors to be counted shall include the adult owners of a farm or business entity in whose farm or business name an animal may be registered. For more information refer to Rule 3, General Animal Rules, Section D, Ownership.

General Rules & Regulations:

1. All animals are subject to be used in the Livestock Judging contest and Extravaganza.
2. During shows, no photographers are permitted in the ring except for the official photographer. Please take photos from behind the fencing; remaining outside of the ring.

Goat Department Rules & Regulations:

1. Entries are restricted to Delaware breeders only. Active Delaware 4-H members are permitted to exhibit in open and junior livestock shows regardless of residency.
2. Boer Market weigh-ins will take place Saturday, July 25 at 8:30AM. Back tags will be handed out at the scales.
3. Bring your own hay, grain, pails, etc. All bedding should be cleaned/changed daily.
4. All dairy and boer market goats must be body clipped before entering the fairgrounds. This does not apply to pygmy goats or boer meat breed does. Any sick or underweight animal will not be permitted to unload. All does, regardless of age, shall have official scrapie identifications. This identification may be by ear tag, tattoo, or microchip. Any animals not having proper scrapie identification will NOT be allowed to show. If additional information is needed, contact Karen Lopez, Delaware Department of Agriculture at 302-698-4539. This rule applies to all sheep and all goats including Pygmy Goats.
5. Junior Exhibitors are strongly encouraged to use boer market goats only for the Jr. Showmanship and Fitting (combined) Show. However; if and only if an exhibitor does not have a market goat, they will be permitted to use their own boer meat breed goat if that breed goat is entered in the Open Boer Meat Goat Breed Show.
6. The exhibitor's back tag pertains to the animal entry number, not the exhibitor number.
7. Pens for market animals to be held for Thursday's auction will be located in the New Castle Barn. Please see the Superintendent for pen assignment.
8. No center sections are to be removed from pens.

Registration Papers:

1. Registration papers for Boer Meat Breed Goats will be checked in the New Castle Barn from 2:00 PM to 3:00 PM on Friday, July 24. No screenshots, pictures or copies will be accepted. Only original documents will be accepted. All documents must be presented in person at specified time. Goats whose registration papers have not been checked will not be allowed to show.
2. Registration papers for Dairy Goats and Pygmy Goats will be checked in the New Castle Barn from 2:00 PM to 3:30 PM on Wednesday, July 29. No screenshots, pictures or copies will be accepted. Only original documents will be accepted. All documents must be presented in person at specified time. Goats whose registration papers have not been checked will not be allowed to show.

- 3. Once an animal is scratched during registration paper check , that particular animal cannot be re-entered into a show.

JUNIOR BOER MARKET GOAT SHOW

All Junior Market Exhibitors shall provide a viable cell phone number on their ShoWorks account. Should your market goat make the auction on Thursday, July 30th, you will receive a text with an approximate time that the Fair Staff will clean the Simpson and New Castle Barns. You will be responsible for your animal(s) and tack during this process. The Fair Staff will be utilizing gas powered backpacks to blow the bedding from the pens.

Rules:

1. All junior market animal exhibitors MUST complete a Youth for the Quality Care of Animals (YQCA) training certification class (online or in-person), unless they have an existing Youth Pork Quality Assurance (YPQA) certification that is valid through August 1, 2026. The YQCA training certification course can be done either in person or online, but must be completed to enter a market animal in the 2025 Delaware State Fair. Exhibitors will be asked upon entry to provide their YQCA certification before moving forward with their entries.
  - a. This mandatory training requirement shall apply to all those exhibiting market animals. The training certification is not limited to only market animal exhibitors and all exhibitors are encouraged to consider completing this course.
  - b. If you are a junior market animal exhibitor and have not attended or completed the online YQCA course nor currently have an existing YPQA valid certification by the deadline (June 1, 2026), you will not be permitted to show your market animal(s).
  - c. For more detailed information about the YQCA requirement and how to fulfill the requirements please click here to visit the Fair's website
2. Market animals can upload photos of their animals until July 1, 2026. Animals that make the auction will have the opportunity for add-ons in which the photos will be displayed to buyers. Please contact the Premiums office for more information (302) 398-7013.
3. Any boer breed or crosses will be eligible to compete in the Boer Market Classes. Fainting goats are not eligible. Registration papers are not required on goats entered in the Boer Market Classes.
4. Wethers and does can be shown in the Boer Market Show. Doe kids shown in the Boer Market Classes are not eligible to compete in the boer meat breed show.
5. Intact Males: Any interest in showing intact males will be considered by the Goat Show Committee for future shows.
6. Boer market goats must weigh a minimum of 45 pounds and a maximum of 120 pounds. Animals will be divided by weight based on the number of animals.
7. Junior exhibitors may only show a maximum of two boer market goats not in the same class. Only bring two boer market goats to the fair per exhibitor even if you tagged more than two.
8. Goats will be placed in classes according to weight.
9. Boer market goats must be shown in uniformly short hair and must be body clipped before entering the fairgrounds.
10. Age: Goats must have their milk teeth and show no breaking or eruption of either of the two permanent front teeth and must be less than one (1) year old.
11. Horns: If horned, horns must be tipped blunt.
12. Either Boer Market or Breed Animals may be used for showmanship contests, but the animal must be entered in a show class.
13. Showmanship classes may be adjusted due to class size. There will be a minimum class size of 3 exhibitors.
14. The top placed animals in each class will be marked for identification of order for Tuesday (Livestock Extravaganza) and Thursday (Livestock Auction) night.
15. If two Boer market animals entered by the same exhibitor are determined to be in the same weight class, the exhibitor shall select one of the two animals to be moved up to the next higher weight class thereby allowing the exhibitor the opportunity to show both animals. If two market animals entered by the same exhibitor are determined to be in the heaviest weight class, the exhibitor shall choose which animal will be struck from the competition.

16. All animals must be fitted and prepped outside and no other barns on the fairgrounds are to be used for fitting any time during the fair.
